As startups and small businesses- we need to support each other to grow and establish our brands.

I recently asked for recommendations and collaborations with Diwali gift vendors. The response was overwhelming, and thank you, and all the best for all your ventures!

I choose to join hands with Tavya Ceramics. In a few days, she has shown me her mettle, not with the beautiful ceramic products she curates but with her business acumen and sheer hard work.

As a woman, I could empathize with her at many levels; her struggles were not just growing her bottom line but also fighting gender bias at many levels. And not many can survive this. As female founders, we are a very small fraternity, and we should stick together and help each other grow.

When I decided on Tavya Ceramics, I not only chose some wonderful gifts for my team but was also rooting for another woman to make it big on her terms.

This Diwali, when we worship the goddess, let us also celebrate her female form on earth!

Happy Diwali!
